The Central Belkats charge onto the field at Tennessee Tech Sunday afternoon. After a 14-9 win over Henry County, they would depart with their first ever state football title since the TSSAA playoffs began in 1988. See story on C2.

...to be made this month. Community Chairman Hugh Hysom told The Focus that, as of midweek, at three people have indicated an interest in the position.

"I anticipate there will be others before the deadline," Hysom said.
