

CHERRY HILL, N.J. (AP) — A cheerleader from Cherry Hill High School North is shown in a red shirt and blue skirt, wearing a black wristband.

Halls cheerleaders, Bourdon basketball players are among holiday helpers

BY JEFFREY M. HARRIS

As the holiday season approaches, many students and teachers are busy with their own preparations. But for some, the season is also a time of giving.

At Cherry Hill High School North, cheerleaders and basketball players are among those who are helping to make the holidays brighter for others.

The cheerleaders, led by their captain, are busy with their own preparations. But for some, the season is also a time of giving.

The basketball players, led by their captain, are also busy with their own preparations. But for some, the season is also a time of giving.

As the holiday season approaches, many students and teachers are busy with their own preparations. But for some, the season is also a time of giving.

At Cherry Hill High School North, cheerleaders and basketball players are among those who are helping to make the holidays brighter for others.

The cheerleaders, led by their captain, are busy with their own preparations. But for some, the season is also a time of giving.

The basketball players, led by their captain, are also busy with their own preparations. But for some, the season is also a time of giving.