

Has dining info
and more from the Knoxville Focus
FREE with this subscription

'A heartwarming experience'

10th Grader, Anna Rodriguez, at the Knoxville Focus Key to the Community.

Janice Cook named 2018 Simon Youth Foundation Administrator of the Year

Achievement

Janice Cook, Administrator of the Simon Youth Foundation, has been named the 2018 Administrator of the Year. Cook has been in the position since 2014 and has led the foundation through a period of significant growth and success.

Cook's leadership has resulted in the foundation's annual gala, which is one of the largest and most successful in the region. She has also overseen the foundation's expansion into new areas, including the launch of the Simon Youth Foundation's first-ever youth center in Knoxville.

Halls cheerleaders, Bearden basketball players are among holiday helpers

As a cheerleader for the Halls High School, Anna Rodriguez has spent a lot of time helping others. This year, she and her fellow cheerleaders are helping out at the Knoxville Focus Key to the Community event. Rodriguez is a 10th grader and has been a cheerleader for three years. She is also a member of the school's basketball team.

Anna Rodriguez is a 10th grader at Halls High School. She is a cheerleader and a member of the school's basketball team. She is also a member of the school's dance team. Rodriguez is a very active and accomplished student.

Bearden High School basketball player, [Name], at the Knoxville Focus Key to the Community event.

Magella Ave., Chiltown Park, Riverwalk funding on city agenda

The city of Knoxville is looking to fund several key projects on its agenda. These include the development of Magella Avenue, the renovation of Chiltown Park, and the expansion of the Riverwalk. The city is currently seeking funding for these projects and is open to various options, including public-private partnerships.

The city is currently seeking funding for these projects and is open to various options, including public-private partnerships. The city is also looking to improve the city's infrastructure and create more jobs for its residents.

The city is also looking to improve the city's infrastructure and create more jobs for its residents. The city is currently seeking funding for these projects and is open to various options, including public-private partnerships.

History Walking
Join us for a guided walk through the historic district of Knoxville. We will visit some of the most important landmarks and learn about the city's rich history.

Local produce
Fresh, locally sourced produce from our farmers. We offer a variety of seasonal fruits and vegetables, all grown in the heart of Knoxville.

ROBBINS CLEANERS
Professional dry cleaning and alterations. We offer a wide range of services, including same-day service and pickup and delivery.