

Photo: Ryan Schmitt/Staff Photo. High school cheerleaders are among the volunteers at the Christmas Tree.

Halls cheerleaders, Bearden basketball players are among holiday helpers

By Dave Wilson

Students at Washington County High School and Bearden High School are among the volunteers who helped with the Christmas Tree.

The Washington County High School cheerleaders and Bearden High School basketball players are among the volunteers who helped with the Christmas Tree. The cheerleaders are from the Washington County High School and the basketball players are from Bearden High School.

The Washington County High School cheerleaders and Bearden High School basketball players are among the volunteers who helped with the Christmas Tree. The cheerleaders are from the Washington County High School and the basketball players are from Bearden High School.

The Washington County High School cheerleaders and Bearden High School basketball players are among the volunteers who helped with the Christmas Tree. The cheerleaders are from the Washington County High School and the basketball players are from Bearden High School.

The Washington County High School cheerleaders and Bearden High School basketball players are among the volunteers who helped with the Christmas Tree. The cheerleaders are from the Washington County High School and the basketball players are from Bearden High School.

The Washington County High School cheerleaders and Bearden High School basketball players are among the volunteers who helped with the Christmas Tree. The cheerleaders are from the Washington County High School and the basketball players are from Bearden High School.

The Washington County High School cheerleaders and Bearden High School basketball players are among the volunteers who helped with the Christmas Tree. The cheerleaders are from the Washington County High School and the basketball players are from Bearden High School.

The Washington County High School cheerleaders and Bearden High School basketball players are among the volunteers who helped with the Christmas Tree. The cheerleaders are from the Washington County High School and the basketball players are from Bearden High School.

Photo: Ryan Schmitt/Staff Photo. High school cheerleaders are among the volunteers at the Christmas Tree.

The Washington County High School cheerleaders and Bearden High School basketball players are among the volunteers who helped with the Christmas Tree. The cheerleaders are from the Washington County High School and the basketball players are from Bearden High School.

The Washington County High School cheerleaders and Bearden High School basketball players are among the volunteers who helped with the Christmas Tree. The cheerleaders are from the Washington County High School and the basketball players are from Bearden High School.