

Stability, safety increased at Hardin Valley Forum

As the 2011-2012 school year begins, the Hardin Valley Forum is pleased to announce that the school district has achieved a significant milestone in its efforts to ensure the safety and stability of its students and staff. The forum, which is a partnership between the school district and the local community, has been instrumental in implementing a comprehensive safety plan that includes increased security measures, staff training, and community outreach. The forum's efforts have resulted in a safer and more secure environment for all who are part of the Hardin Valley community. The forum's success is a testament to the dedication and commitment of all who are involved in the Hardin Valley Forum. The forum's efforts have resulted in a safer and more secure environment for all who are part of the Hardin Valley community. The forum's success is a testament to the dedication and commitment of all who are involved in the Hardin Valley Forum.

On the Prowl! Action comes inside gym for a shot against Pitt in Thursday night's boys' basketball. Hardin Valley basketball's momentum changed midway game at South Fork Middle School. (Clockwise from top left) Photos are displayed either in reverse or in portrait in this section. (Clockwise from top left) Photos are displayed either in reverse or in portrait in this section.

Commencement may decide who gets Brown that keeps students in school

The Knox County Board of Education will hold its annual commencement ceremony on Thursday, May 10, at the Hardin Valley Forum. The ceremony will be held at the Hardin Valley Forum, which is a partnership between the school district and the local community. The forum's efforts have resulted in a safer and more secure environment for all who are part of the Hardin Valley community. The forum's success is a testament to the dedication and commitment of all who are involved in the Hardin Valley Forum. The forum's efforts have resulted in a safer and more secure environment for all who are part of the Hardin Valley community. The forum's success is a testament to the dedication and commitment of all who are involved in the Hardin Valley Forum.

Board decides to continue Career Magnet Academy

The Knox County Board of Education has decided to continue the Career Magnet Academy, which is a partnership between the school district and the local community. The academy is a program that provides students with a variety of career and technical education opportunities. The academy's success is a testament to the dedication and commitment of all who are involved in the Career Magnet Academy. The academy's efforts have resulted in a safer and more secure environment for all who are part of the Career Magnet Academy. The academy's success is a testament to the dedication and commitment of all who are involved in the Career Magnet Academy.

ROBBINS CLEANERS
Knoxville, TN • 606.254.2000
www.knoxfocus.com

2011 Ford Focus $14,999
Knoxville, TN • 606.254.2000
www.knoxfocus.com