

'GROWING KNOXVILLE TOGETHER'

Eddie Mannis kicks off mayoral campaign

Eddie Mannis, a former city council member, kicked off his mayoral campaign at a press conference at the Knoxville Convention Center on Tuesday, Oct. 14. Mannis is running for the position of mayor in the November election.

REPORTER
 Eddie Mannis, a former city council member, kicked off his mayoral campaign at a press conference at the Knoxville Convention Center on Tuesday, Oct. 14. Mannis is running for the position of mayor in the November election. Mannis, who served on the council from 2003 to 2011, said he wants to bring a focus on economic development and job creation to the city. He also mentioned his experience in the private sector and his commitment to transparency and accountability in government.

Mannis said he wants to bring a focus on economic development and job creation to the city. He also mentioned his experience in the private sector and his commitment to transparency and accountability in government. He said he wants to work with the community to address the city's challenges and improve the quality of life for all residents.

Mannis said he wants to bring a focus on economic development and job creation to the city. He also mentioned his experience in the private sector and his commitment to transparency and accountability in government. He said he wants to work with the community to address the city's challenges and improve the quality of life for all residents.

Design chamette presents Recode Knoxville applied

The Recode Knoxville Applied program is a collaboration between the city and the private sector to provide training and employment opportunities for residents. The program focuses on teaching skills in various fields such as coding, design, and data analysis. Participants receive hands-on experience and mentorship from industry professionals. The goal is to help individuals gain the skills needed to succeed in the modern workforce.

Mary Hickman turns 92 with family and friends at Litton's

Mary Hickman celebrated her 92nd birthday at Litton's restaurant. She was surrounded by family and friends for a special occasion. Mary has lived in Knoxville for many years and has a long history in the community. She is known for her kindness and dedication to her family.

Mary Hickman celebrated her 92nd birthday at Litton's restaurant. She was surrounded by family and friends for a special occasion. Mary has lived in Knoxville for many years and has a long history in the community. She is known for her kindness and dedication to her family.

Tax break for holiday lim purchase approved by council

The city council has approved a tax break for the purchase of a holiday-themed limousine. This initiative is part of a broader effort to stimulate the local economy and support businesses during the holiday season. The tax break will apply to purchases made between October and December.

The city council has approved a tax break for the purchase of a holiday-themed limousine. This initiative is part of a broader effort to stimulate the local economy and support businesses during the holiday season. The tax break will apply to purchases made between October and December.

The city council has approved a tax break for the purchase of a holiday-themed limousine. This initiative is part of a broader effort to stimulate the local economy and support businesses during the holiday season. The tax break will apply to purchases made between October and December.

The city council has approved a tax break for the purchase of a holiday-themed limousine. This initiative is part of a broader effort to stimulate the local economy and support businesses during the holiday season. The tax break will apply to purchases made between October and December.

Advertisement for Vanier, featuring a car and contact information for a business.