

His experience as a visionary was mentioned Tuesday as Eddie Mannix kicked off his campaign to become Knoxville's next mayor. A large crowd attended the event where Mannix highlighted six things he hopes to do when he leads the city.

care and taught out the candidate for handicapped and create future and after the spoke.

Mary of the officers and office workers attend most political announcements and Tuesday's cation and self-improvement, being people focused, and supporting strong and safe neighborhood.

"Taking Knoxville Together" is the campaign's slogan and children.

He said that the police and fire departments should get the support they need and deserve and added, "I can't do this alone."

Continued on page 3

Design charrette presents Recode Knoxville applied

By Amy Ray Sullivan

Mary Hickman turns 92 with family and friends at Litton's

By Rose King

Mary Grubb Hickman celebrated her 92nd birthday at a surprise gathering on Saturday, January 26. Thinking she was going for an intimate birthday dinner with long-time friends, state Representative Dave Wright and wife, Pat, Mary brought her famous Hurenberg's Cake to share with her friends after their meal.

"Mary is so gracious and generous that you can hardly do anything for her without her trying to repay the kindness," Pat Wright told The Focus. "So when she told us that she was going to bring a cake for us to enjoy after dinner Dave told her that would be just fine."

When they arrived at her favorite restaurant, Litton's, the back room was filled with family, church and community friends all of whom enjoyed a slice of her cake after a great meal.

Mary Grubb Hickman shared fond memories

