

...the following committee

...the following committee

...the following committee

...the following committee

...the following committee

Commission again talks of creating a county growth plan

By Mike Hoody
CapeCan.com

While the subject of growth is being discussed in Cape Canaveral, the county commission is also discussing the possibility of creating a county growth plan. The commission is also discussing the possibility of creating a county growth plan. The commission is also discussing the possibility of creating a county growth plan.

The commission is also discussing the possibility of creating a county growth plan. The commission is also discussing the possibility of creating a county growth plan. The commission is also discussing the possibility of creating a county growth plan.

The commission is also discussing the possibility of creating a county growth plan. The commission is also discussing the possibility of creating a county growth plan. The commission is also discussing the possibility of creating a county growth plan.

The commission is also discussing the possibility of creating a county growth plan. The commission is also discussing the possibility of creating a county growth plan. The commission is also discussing the possibility of creating a county growth plan.

Continued on page 2

Roger Kane suddenly resigns as the Education Liaison

By Mike Hoody
CapeCan.com

...the following committee

...the following committee

HIGH AND MIGHTY

Cape Canaveral's Howard County (H) basketball team defeated University School of the South Friday night in the Division 1-A state quarterfinal game at Christian Academy of Leesville. The Lady Hawks pulled out a 44-39 victory and will advance to the state semifinal round Friday in Marietta. Fans are game day on CCB and other high school basketball tournaments coverage on Sports & Recreation, Section C. Photo By Carlin White/L.S. White Photography

Joint Education Committee