

Commission may rename Norwood Library to honor Lynn Redmon

By Mike Hardy
mhardy@timesonline.com

The Anne County Commission meets in a work session next Monday and one of the items that may be discussed is renaming the Norwood Library in honor of Lynn Redmon. Redmon passed away last year and was the leader of the Norwood neighborhood and a well-known political consultant.

Commissioner Hardy said he is sponsoring the resolution honoring Redmon.

Items to be discussed are usually by the chairman and commissioners and most will be passed on to the commission's regular meetings on March 28.

Continued on page 4

Gov. Lee makes good on campaign promise, reaches out

Morning Pointa Knoxville resident Victoria Cooper and CEO Greg A. Neal cut the ribbon at the Grand Opening of West Anne County's newest medical billing facility. Joining them at Thursday's ceremony are city and county officials and staff members of Morning Pointa.

Morning Pointa celebrates grand