

South-Doyle Middle School hurt by BMX cancellation

By Staff Writer
 South-Doyle Middle School is facing a significant financial challenge due to the cancellation of the BMX program. The school district has reported a substantial loss of revenue, which was previously used to support various extracurricular activities and programs. The cancellation was announced by the local BMX association, citing safety concerns and a lack of participants. The school district is currently exploring alternative funding sources to offset the financial impact.

The school district is currently exploring alternative funding sources to offset the financial impact. The cancellation was announced by the local BMX association, citing safety concerns and a lack of participants. The school district is currently exploring alternative funding sources to offset the financial impact.

The school district is currently exploring alternative funding sources to offset the financial impact. The cancellation was announced by the local BMX association, citing safety concerns and a lack of participants. The school district is currently exploring alternative funding sources to offset the financial impact.

The school district is currently exploring alternative funding sources to offset the financial impact. The cancellation was announced by the local BMX association, citing safety concerns and a lack of participants. The school district is currently exploring alternative funding sources to offset the financial impact.

Corryton Senior Center Welcomes Mayor Glenn Jacobs

By Staff Writer
 Mayor Glenn Jacobs welcomed a group of residents to the Corryton Senior Center. The event was held to celebrate the center's anniversary and to provide a platform for community members to share their experiences. Mayor Jacobs spoke about the importance of senior care and the role of the community in supporting the elderly. The center's staff and volunteers also shared their dedication to providing quality care and services to the residents.

Mayor Glenn Jacobs (right) interacts with residents at the Corryton Senior Center.

Strong Cuts, $10 million in bonds, and nearly budget discussed at commission
 The commission discussed various budgetary issues, including potential cuts and the issuance of bonds. The discussion focused on finding ways to maintain essential services while addressing the financial challenges faced by the district.

Tribe of Judah Event Center offers services to residents

By Staff Writer
 The Tribe of Judah Event Center is offering a variety of services to its residents. The center provides a safe and supportive environment where residents can engage in social activities, receive counseling, and access other community resources. The staff is committed to ensuring that all residents feel welcomed and supported.

The Tribe of Judah Event Center is offering a variety of services to its residents. The center provides a safe and supportive environment where residents can engage in social activities, receive counseling, and access other community resources. The staff is committed to ensuring that all residents feel welcomed and supported.

The Tribe of Judah Event Center is offering a variety of services to its residents. The center provides a safe and supportive environment where residents can engage in social activities, receive counseling, and access other community resources. The staff is committed to ensuring that all residents feel welcomed and supported.

Public Audio Auction
 Wednesday, April 10 at 10:00 AM
 www.auction.com

AA POWELL
 Auctioneers & Realty

Water-Watching
 This community event will feature water-watching and other activities. The event is designed to provide a fun and educational experience for all ages.

New Video Games $49.99
 Buy VARNER
 Call Now 800-457-4000