

The Knoxville Focus

www.knoxfocus.com

• 2014-2015
 • 2014-2015
 • 2014-2015
FREE
 • 2014-2015

News of the city, county, state, and nation, with a focus on the local scene. The Knoxville Focus is published weekly.

Bicycle lane marking, Jackson Avenue ramps, Arthur Seydewitz history

Staff Report
 The city of Knoxville is set to launch a series of transportation improvements, including bicycle lane markings, Jackson Avenue ramps, and a historical marker for Arthur Seydewitz.

The city's transportation department is set to launch a series of improvements, including bicycle lane markings, Jackson Avenue ramps, and a historical marker for Arthur Seydewitz.

The city's transportation department is set to launch a series of improvements, including bicycle lane markings, Jackson Avenue ramps, and a historical marker for Arthur Seydewitz.

A group of people, including children and adults, holding a blue banner that reads 'Special Olympics Track Meet'.

HVA senior Moro learns by organizing Special Olympics Track Meet

Staff Report
 A senior member of the Hinsdale Volunteer Association (HVA) is learning valuable lessons through organizing the Special Olympics Track Meet.

A senior member of the Hinsdale Volunteer Association (HVA) is learning valuable lessons through organizing the Special Olympics Track Meet.

A portrait of a man in a blue shirt, likely the subject of the article, Moro.

Commission may change zoning procedure

Staff Report
 A commission is considering changes to the city's zoning procedure, which could impact how new developments are reviewed and approved.

A commission is considering changes to the city's zoning procedure, which could impact how new developments are reviewed and approved.

Local News Alerts

Stay up to date on the latest news from the Knoxville Focus. Sign up for our newsletter today!

Professional Landscaping

Transform your outdoor space with professional landscaping services. Call today for a free estimate.

Professional Cleaning & Maintenance

Keep your home or business spotless with our professional cleaning services. Call today for a free quote.