

ing their positions on the proposed Roads changes. The four candidates, Fletcher Burkhardt, Indya Kincannon, Eddie Morris and Marshall Star, favored stopping or postponing the effort to change the zoning regulations.

Eddie Morris and Marshall Star. Two other candidates who picked up qualifying

...Continued on page 3

'Celebrating our Seniors' at Honor Fountain City Day

By Mike Stealy
stealy@knoxnews.com

The 44th Annual Honor Fountain City Day, held on Memorial Day each year, has "Celebrating our Seniors" as the theme this year. Tyler Parks, chair of the event, and Fountain City town hall have selected several people to honor. The honors awards begin at 3 p.m.

Community leader and lifelong Knoxville resident Jamie Flores will be the featured speaker.

The Commercial Restoration award goes to Starbucks. The Residential Restoration award goes to David and Lori Hensley. The Chairman's Award goes to

Six qualify to run for Knoxville Mayor, five for At Large C

By Mike Stealy
stealy@knoxnews.com

The Knox County Election Commission issued information on people who picked up and returned qualifying petitions for mayor and city council seats.

Candidates for mayor include Michael W. Andrews, Fletcher "Knoxville" Burkhardt, Indya Kincannon, Eddie Morris, Calvin Taylor Skinner and Marshall Star.

Candidates to replace At Large Commissioner Finbarr Saunders for Seat C include Amy Mads, Amelia Parker, Hubert Smith, Bob