

Tennessee Education Commissioner Penny Schwinn visited South Knoxville Elementary School last week. She spoke at the school's graduation and had a question-and-answer session with third and fourth grade girls at the school's library Wednesday morning.

Penny Schwinn visits South Knox Elementary

By Ken Lay

School

Tennessee Education Commissioner Penny Schwinn made a stop in Knoxville Wednesday morning and came to South Knoxville Bementary

Her stay was brief but the morning was busy for Schwinn, who gave the opening remarks at the school's fifthgrade graduation.

Following her time at that ceremony. Schwinn went to the school's trip and she felt the 30-minute question-and-answer session was a bit brief. She left her email address with South Knoxville principal Tana Nicely the summer break.

excited to be here and to visit with don't pay teachers enough money." these stris."

hospital and I loved it. "My aunts told me that I should come and see a baby being born and I saw it and decided that I wanted so the students could email her over to work with children once they were out. I have two young girls and Tgo to schools every day but I don't I wanted to prove that I could be a get to Knoxville as much as I would teacher and a mother. I wanted to be like," Schwinn said before heading to a commissioner because I wanted to catch a plane back to Nashville. "I'm do more to help teachers because we

Nicely was excited to have Schwinn

What is a majority in the upcoming city election?

By Mike Steely steelym@knoxfocus.com

County Election Commission the race for mayor, plus one vote. with several candidates on the ballot could be potential candidate Mike decided in the prima- Chase, a Knoxville resry election. The victory tauranteur, picked up a would be hard to come petition the week of the by because the rules deadline and returned say "any candidate for it with 43 names. Rodgmajor receiving a major- era said that he called ity of all the votes cast. Chase and urged him to for the office of mayor pick up another petition in the primary shall be because only 22 of the declared elected without names qualified to vote or does it mean a simple signing the Chase petition majority? The Focus were county residents or write-in candidates.

Cliff Rodgers told The According to the Knox Focus that "majority" in the election means 50%

Rodgers also said that the necessity of a runoff," in the city election. Rod-Does that mean 51% sters said many of those