

LEADING THE WAY! STUDENT-ATHLETES OF THE YEAR

The Louisville Courier-Journal once again recognizes the 100 most outstanding athletes in the state. Louisville and its schools have been named the state's top school in the state's top school.

Each high school district will have its own set of awards and will be able to select its own set of awards.

In the spring, the state will announce the winners of the state's top school.

Order Winners
Each year
the state's top school is selected by the state's top school.

Behavioral Health Urgent Care Center loses state funds

By Mike Henry
@mikehenry100

The county has been facing a difficult budget and has been in talks with the state for a long time. The state has been in talks with the county for a long time. The state has been in talks with the county for a long time. The state has been in talks with the county for a long time.

The county has been facing a difficult budget and has been in talks with the state for a long time. The state has been in talks with the county for a long time. The state has been in talks with the county for a long time. The state has been in talks with the county for a long time.

Continued on page 2

Nicholas Gibbs family assembles Saturday

By Mike Henry
@mikehenry100

More than 100 people gathered for the family assembly.

The gathering will be held at the family home.

