

for the deadline for transfers is July 1, 2009.
 Their Navy did open the opportunity to reassign the Knox County School Boards 2008 Student Representative, Mannis back. Mannis is from Chapman Hill area south district. Mannis is an academic scholar and was designated as an AP Scholar and member of Alpha Theta, which have accepted into the University of Tennessee's prestigious Chancellor's Honor Program. She also served as a member of the Marching Band and a Team Academy
 Ambassador, was a
 Tennessee FFA State
 Official Coach for two years, and volunteered at church, Habitat and at the American Cancer Society. Last but not least, she was nominated to the Marching Academy from nearly the school's most prestigious student body. Nick Poole, former city council member District 1 Green Party, candidate for city council at large seat 4, Eddie Moore, candidate for city council and George Mullins, city council member seat 4.

Mannis supporters gather at SoKno Taco Cantina

By Ken Lay

Executive Republican, mayoral candidate Eddie Mannis made a campaign stop at SoKno Taco Cafe Thursday afternoon where he was greeted by supporters and despite over services and a few opinions, spirits were high.
 The gathering was held on the patio of the restaurant and was an informal meet and greet.

 Mannis spoke with supporters individually, but did not make a formal address and his schedule, which was extremely packed that week, excluded him from enjoying appetizers with the crowd.
 But the evening dining in SoKno provided before the August primary election and the gathering was organized by City Councilman Nick Poole.

 Councilman George Mullins was in attendance along with County Commissioner Carole Dorsey and others.
 "It's been a busy week but it was important for me to come here, to
 _____
 Continued on page 2

unconsciously to receive funds for the care of poor people to the present level.
 (Early progress) cutting the funds to the health department and its budget was roughly about 40% Commissioner Brad Rogers began the budget meeting Thursday afternoon by offering a statement motion to receive the funds. He said that this county is struggling to receive funds could create the needed money without getting that over the coming year the program could be defined.
 Rogers said the reduction of to the current level would be a "one-time"
 Continued on page 2

Meetings allow public input on Knox County greenways