

The Spangler team celebrates, but they had a great time playing on a cloudy day. From Spangler (left) (clockwise) Andrew Brady, Brian and Lisa and Stephen Brady.

Spangler Golf Classic 'blessed' by friends, family, weather and turnout

By Anne Williams

The second, "New Spangler" golf course "renewal" was held on May 18 at the new Spangler Golf Course in south Knox County. Knox County Sheriff Spangler and his family were in charge.

Spangler's first day was the first of the "New Spangler" golf course "renewal" on May 18. He said he was "blessed" by the weather, the turnout, and the family.

Spangler's first day was the first of the "New Spangler" golf course "renewal" on May 18. He said he was "blessed" by the weather, the turnout, and the family.

"We got some amazing weather today, and it was a great day for the family."

"We had a great turnout today, and it was a great day for the family."

"We had a great turnout today, and it was a great day for the family."

"We had a great turnout today, and it was a great day for the family."

"We got some amazing weather today, and it was a great day for the family."

"We had a great turnout today, and it was a great day for the family."

"We had a great turnout today, and it was a great day for the family."

"We had a great turnout today, and it was a great day for the family."

"We got some amazing weather today, and it was a great day for the family."

"We had a great turnout today, and it was a great day for the family."

"We had a great turnout today, and it was a great day for the family."

"We had a great turnout today, and it was a great day for the family."

The second, "New Spangler" golf course "renewal" was held on May 18 at the new Spangler Golf Course in south Knox County. Knox County Sheriff Spangler and his family were in charge.

The second, "New Spangler" golf course "renewal" was held on May 18 at the new Spangler Golf Course in south Knox County. Knox County Sheriff Spangler and his family were in charge.

The second, "New Spangler" golf course "renewal" was held on May 18 at the new Spangler Golf Course in south Knox County. Knox County Sheriff Spangler and his family were in charge.

Continued on page 2

Knox County's sex education curriculum under scrutiny

By Anne Williams

The Knox County Board of Education is reviewing the county's sex education curriculum.

Beards dominates planning