Community leader Lynn Redmon memorialized

James Thompson, a black man, was lynched in 1902 in the town of Sumner, Mississippi, after being accused of raping a white woman. The lynching was a public spectacle, with a large crowd gathered to watch the execution. The event was widely reported in the press, and it shocked the nation.

As a result, the company's revenue is expected to grow by 10% to 12% in 2007, while its operating income is expected to grow by 15% to 20%.

Andersson and colleagues found that the most common reasons for leaving a job were lack of career advancement, low pay, and poor working conditions. The authors suggest that these factors are the most likely to lead to turnover, and that organizations should focus on improving these areas to reduce turnover.
