

Commissioner Randy Smith, at left, stands under an umbrella as the building that houses the Worwood Library is dedicated for the late Lynn Redmon. Scores of officials, citizens and friends turned out Wednesday morning for the dedication.

Community leader Lynn Redmon memorialized

By Mike Healy
mikehealy@times.com

Lynn Redmon, a 70-

and respected for being a spokesman for rough terrain issues, a por-announcing officials, neigh- borhood leaders, former officials, and friends of wife, it is, worked for 30 years at the library and he called Redmon a "gut-

"His efforts made the community and the county better," Smith said.

Rogers, Commissioner Rudy Gil, Gordon Galey, Michele Harringer, Brad