

PHOTO BY MIKE STEELY

Commissioner Randy Smith, at left, stands under an umbrella as the building that houses the Norwood Library is dedicated to the late Lynn Redmon. Dozens of office holders, citizens and friends turned out Wednesday morning for the dedication.

Community leader Lynn Redmon memorialized

By Mike Steely
steelym@knoxfocus.com

Lynn Redmon, a Norwood and Knoxville com-and respected for being a spokesman for neighborhood causes, a political consultant, and as all-and county officials, neighborhood leaders, former officials, and friends of Redmon. On hand for the wife, Ann, worked for 30 years at the library and he called Redmon a "guiding star" that helped him

"His efforts made the community and the county better," Smith said. Knox County Mayor

Rogers, Commissioners Evelyn Gill, Carson Dailey, Michele Carringer, Brad Anderson and Loren Fox, and