

Early voting begins next week

Early voting for the 2024 general election begins next week, with voters able to cast their ballots from 7 a.m. to 7 p.m. at various locations across the city. The election includes contests for U.S. House, U.S. Senate, and several state and local offices. The deadline for in-person voting is Tuesday, November 5, at 7 p.m. For more information on voting locations and procedures, visit the Knox County website.

Mannis attends Five Points parade

Mayor Mennis (left) joined city officials and community members for the annual Five Points parade. The parade celebrated the city's rich history and community spirit. Mennis and his family were seen walking alongside other participants, including students and local businesses.

Second reading of Recode before City Council

The City Council will hold a second reading of the proposed Recode on Tuesday, October 22, at 7 p.m. in the City Council Chamber. The Recode is a comprehensive update to the city's zoning and land use regulations, aimed at streamlining the development process and addressing current needs. The council will discuss the Recode's impact on the community and provide feedback. The final version of the Recode will be adopted by the council in a subsequent meeting.

Abloom Florist donates flowers to Shannondale Healthcare Center

Abloom Florist donated a variety of beautiful floral arrangements to the Shannondale Healthcare Center. The donation was part of the florist's ongoing commitment to supporting the local healthcare community and bringing a touch of nature to patients and staff.

Abloom Florist, a local business known for its high-quality floral designs, recently made a generous donation to the Shannondale Healthcare Center. The donation included several large floral centerpieces and smaller bouquets, which will be used to brighten up the center's common areas and patient rooms. The florist's owner expressed pride in being able to give back to the community and support the care provided at the center. The Shannondale Healthcare Center is a leading provider of healthcare services in the area, and the donation is a testament to the community's support for its well-being.
