

Locally known candidate Eddie Mannis outlines campaign goals Tuesday night at the South Broward County Board of Commissioners. Mannis, the top vote getter in the 2000 election in Broward, expects the race.

Reorganization, Ancient Village at commission meeting

The annual reorganization meeting of the South Broward County Board of Commissioners was held Tuesday night at the county's new headquarters in Fort Lauderdale. The meeting was held at 7 p.m. and was open to the public. Commissioners discussed the county's budget for the next year, which is expected to be around $1.2 billion. They also discussed the county's reorganization plan, which would create three new departments: Public Works, Health Services, and Social Services. The plan would also create a new position of County Manager, who would be responsible for the day-to-day operations of the county. The meeting was attended by about 100 people, including members of the public and local media.

Commissioners also discussed the county's reorganization plan, which would create three new departments: Public Works, Health Services, and Social Services. The plan would also create a new position of County Manager, who would be responsible for the day-to-day operations of the county. The meeting was attended by about 100 people, including members of the public and local media.

Council talks pay raise for city judge, sign ordinance, Design Center funds

By [Name]

During a recent meeting of the Broward County Board of Commissioners, the board discussed a pay raise for the county judge, signed an ordinance, and approved funding for the Design Center. The board also discussed the county's reorganization plan, which would create three new departments: Public Works, Health Services, and Social Services. The plan would also create a new position of County Manager, who would be responsible for the day-to-day operations of the county. The meeting was attended by about 100 people, including members of the public and local media.

County manager, Judge, and Commissioner discuss the county's reorganization plan during the meeting of the Broward County Board of Commissioners.

The county judge, Judge, and Commissioner discussed the county's reorganization plan during the meeting of the Broward County Board of Commissioners. The plan would create three new departments: Public Works, Health Services, and Social Services. The plan would also create a new position of County Manager, who would be responsible for the day-to-day operations of the county. The meeting was attended by about 100 people, including members of the public and local media.

The county judge, Judge, and Commissioner discussed the county's reorganization plan during the meeting of the Broward County Board of Commissioners. The plan would create three new departments: Public Works, Health Services, and Social Services. The plan would also create a new position of County Manager, who would be responsible for the day-to-day operations of the county. The meeting was attended by about 100 people, including members of the public and local media.

The county judge, Judge, and Commissioner discussed the county's reorganization plan during the meeting of the Broward County Board of Commissioners. The plan would create three new departments: Public Works, Health Services, and Social Services. The plan would also create a new position of County Manager, who would be responsible for the day-to-day operations of the county. The meeting was attended by about 100 people, including members of the public and local media.

Primary by the numbers

By [Name]

The primary election is just around the corner, and voters are already making their choices. The primary election is a crucial part of the electoral process, as it determines which candidates will advance to the general election. Voters should take the time to research the candidates and their platforms, and make their choice wisely. The primary election is a chance for voters to make their voices heard and to elect the candidates they believe best represent their community.

The primary election is just around the corner, and voters are already making their choices. The primary election is a crucial part of the electoral process, as it determines which candidates will advance to the general election. Voters should take the time to research the candidates and their platforms, and make their choice wisely. The primary election is a chance for voters to make their voices heard and to elect the candidates they believe best represent their community.

Continued on page 2