

Now the mayor's candidate Eddie Mannis addresses supporters after Tuesday night's primary at the Grand Street Center. Mannis, the top vote getter, will face Judge Williamson in November's general election.

Reorganization, Ancient Village at commission meeting

By Mike Mendy
mmendy@sfchronicle.com

The annual reorganization of the three-county Commission's duties is this year an all-time event's equivalent as three commissioners may may not be at the planned October 26th meeting. Commissioner Michael Sweeney, who had recently lost family to a disease, may not be able to attend. Sweeney's absence, however, is expected to be a major factor in September's first meeting, which will be the first meeting of the reorganized commission since its creation.

"How much impact for our colleagues" Sweeney said, "Commissioner John Williamson, elected in the December 2000 election, will be unable to attend the meeting. He will be the first candidate to be elected in the first election since the last election."

Commissioners' positions were also reorganized in the meeting. It will be a candidate for the November election, in which he will be elected. It will be the first meeting of the reorganized commission since the current city board of 2000. The commission's duties will be reorganized in the meeting.

Following the meeting, a new candidate for the November election will be elected. The commission's duties will be reorganized in the meeting.

Commissioners' positions were also reorganized in the meeting. It will be a candidate for the November election, in which he will be elected. It will be the first meeting of the reorganized commission since the current city board of 2000. The commission's duties will be reorganized in the meeting.

Primary by the numbers

By Mike Mendy
mmendy@sfchronicle.com

The November 11th general election night is fast and furious. Eddie Mannis, the mayor's candidate, is the top vote getter. He will be elected. It will be the first meeting of the reorganized commission since the current city board of 2000. The commission's duties will be reorganized in the meeting.

The election night is fast and furious. Eddie Mannis, the mayor's candidate, is the top vote getter. He will be elected. It will be the first meeting of the reorganized commission since the current city board of 2000. The commission's duties will be reorganized in the meeting.

The election night is fast and furious. Eddie Mannis, the mayor's candidate, is the top vote getter. He will be elected. It will be the first meeting of the reorganized commission since the current city board of 2000. The commission's duties will be reorganized in the meeting.

Council members Andrew Bakula, Susan McKenney and Thomas Baker after Monday, November 11th, Council meeting. McKenney announced the meeting of the commission's duties will be reorganized in the meeting.

Commissioners' positions were also reorganized in the meeting. It will be a candidate for the November election, in which he will be elected. It will be the first meeting of the reorganized commission since the current city board of 2000. The commission's duties will be reorganized in the meeting.

Commissioners' positions were also reorganized in the meeting. It will be a candidate for the November election, in which he will be elected. It will be the first meeting of the reorganized commission since the current city board of 2000. The commission's duties will be reorganized in the meeting.