

from County Board of Education for the current 2018-2020 two-year term. After the process of eligibility and nomination of voters led by Second District Representative Jennifer Green, nominations were opened. Fourth District Representative Bruce Virginia took command of the First District Representative Green team for the other position. The motion was seconded. Green moved to accept him as the new chair of administration. That motion was seconded and the board unanimously voted Representative Green into the new chair.

Next, Second District Representative Paul Broude nominated Green for the position of vice chair.
