

The two, left, members of the public who took their look at three concept designs from the architects of the $100 million project. The woman on the right is pointing at one of the concept designs.

Three Concept Plans Proposed at Science Museum Meeting

By George Ann Hollenbeck

More than forty people gathered to last Thursday night in the City County Building to learn more about the scientific museum, which is being built on the site of the old County Courthouse. The new building will be a major landmark in the city, and its location is being discussed by the City County Board of Commissioners.

The new building will be a major landmark in the city, and its location is being discussed by the City County Board of Commissioners.

The new building will be a major landmark in the city, and its location is being discussed by the City County Board of Commissioners.

The new building will be a major landmark in the city, and its location is being discussed by the City County Board of Commissioners.

The new building will be a major landmark in the city, and its location is being discussed by the City County Board of Commissioners.

Pension Board moves meetings to 3 p.m.

By Mike Smith

Staff Writer

Published 10/10/10

The City County Pension Board has moved its meetings to 3 p.m. on Wednesdays. The board will meet at the City County Board of Commissioners.

The board will meet at the City County Board of Commissioners. The board will meet at the City County Board of Commissioners.

The board will meet at the City County Board of Commissioners. The board will meet at the City County Board of Commissioners.

The board will meet at the City County Board of Commissioners. The board will meet at the City County Board of Commissioners.

The board will meet at the City County Board of Commissioners. The board will meet at the City County Board of Commissioners.

The board will meet at the City County Board of Commissioners. The board will meet at the City County Board of Commissioners.

The board will meet at the City County Board of Commissioners. The board will meet at the City County Board of Commissioners.

The board will meet at the City County Board of Commissioners. The board will meet at the City County Board of Commissioners.

City passed Growth Plan in split vote