

Tyree honored at World's Fair Park

By Mike Smith
Staff Writer

Local residents have gathered to honor an old friend at World's Fair Park. A local man, Mike Smith, was honored for his contributions to the community.

Smith, 70, was born in [illegible] and has lived in the area for over 40 years. He has been a member of the [illegible] for many years and has been active in the community.

He was honored for his contributions to the community.

Smith was born in [illegible] and has lived in the area for over 40 years. He has been a member of the [illegible] for many years and has been active in the community.

He was honored for his contributions to the community.

He was honored for his contributions to the community.

Mike Smith, center, is honored at World's Fair Park. He is surrounded by family and friends. The banner in the background reads 'Randy'.

Morning Pointe residents' spirits rise with Oak Grove student visit

By Mike Smith
Staff Writer

Residents of Morning Pointe have been inspired by a visit from a group of students from Oak Grove. The students, who were on a field trip, spent time with the residents and shared their experiences.

The visit was a success and the residents are looking forward to future visits.

The students, who were on a field trip, spent time with the residents and shared their experiences.

Continued on page 2

The visit was a success and the residents are looking forward to future visits.

Science center, business park on city agenda

By Mike Smith
Staff Writer

The city of [illegible] has a plan to build a science center and a business park. The plan is to attract investment and create jobs.

The city is looking for private partners to help with the development.

Continued on page 2