

PHOTO BY JOHN VALENTINE

Bryson Rosser joins his Bobcats in celebrating Central's first state football championship in the playoff era after a 14-9 win over Henry County

Senior Writer
steelym@knoxfocus.com

While the county wrestles with a sidewalk proposal the city of Knoxville is preparing to consider a $1 million contract for sidewalks along Wilson Avenue.

Tuesday's first meeting of 2020 will also be the first meeting for newly elected Mayor Indya Kincannon and council members Lynne Fugate, Janet Testerman, Amelia Parker and Charles Thomas. Wilson Avenue runs through a neighborhood in East Knoxville. The city council agenda is asking for council approval of an agreement with Bell & Associates Construction L.P.

Another sidewalk project on the new city council's agenda is a request