

Large turnout for District 8 Meet and Greet

More than 100 residents gathered for a meet and greet with District 8 representatives on Tuesday, June 15, at the community center. The event was held from 6 to 8 p.m. and was attended by District 8 representatives, including Councilman John Smith, Councilwoman Jane Doe, and District 8 residents. The representatives listened to the concerns of the residents and provided information about the district's programs and services. The event was a success and the representatives were able to hear from a large number of residents.
