

David Board (left) and other community members gathered at the Georgia Community and Senior Center. Board and others are shown in the photo. Board is shown in the photo. Board is shown in the photo.

Large turnout for District 8 Meet and Greet

By Marley

Local residents gathered at the Georgia Community and Senior Center Tuesday night for a Meet and Greet with District 8 representatives.

David Board, District 8 representative, was the first to speak. He thanked the community for their support and for the turnout. Board also thanked the Georgia Community and Senior Center for hosting the event.

Board also thanked the Georgia Community and Senior Center for hosting the event. Board also thanked the Georgia Community and Senior Center for hosting the event.

Board also thanked the Georgia Community and Senior Center for hosting the event. Board also thanked the Georgia Community and Senior Center for hosting the event.

Board also thanked the Georgia Community and Senior Center for hosting the event. Board also thanked the Georgia Community and Senior Center for hosting the event.

Board also thanked the Georgia Community and Senior Center for hosting the event. Board also thanked the Georgia Community and Senior Center for hosting the event.

Board also thanked the Georgia Community and Senior Center for hosting the event. Board also thanked the Georgia Community and Senior Center for hosting the event.

Board also thanked the Georgia Community and Senior Center for hosting the event. Board also thanked the Georgia Community and Senior Center for hosting the event.

Who will replace Councilwoman Stephanie Welch?

By Mike Henry
Stephanie Welch
stephanie.welch@cityofknox.org

It is an important day for District 8 and for the city of Knoxville. Stephanie Welch, who has served as Councilwoman for District 8, is leaving the city to pursue other opportunities.

Knox Co. Charter Review Committee elects officers

By Mike Henry
Mike Henry
mike.henry@cityofknox.org

The Knox County Charter Review Committee met for its first meeting and elected officers. The committee is charged with reviewing the county charter and making recommendations for changes.

The committee is charged with reviewing the county charter and making recommendations for changes.

By Mike Henry
Mike Henry
mike.henry@cityofknox.org

The Knox County Charter Review Committee met for its first meeting and elected officers. The committee is charged with reviewing the county charter and making recommendations for changes.

The committee is charged with reviewing the county charter and making recommendations for changes.

The committee is charged with reviewing the county charter and making recommendations for changes.

The committee is charged with reviewing the county charter and making recommendations for changes.

The committee is charged with reviewing the county charter and making recommendations for changes.

Continued on page 2