

The Knoxville - Knox County
FOCUS
 FREE
 Take One
 Your copy every
 two weeks

Haslam wins!
 Nearly 90% of the vote goes to Haslam in second term

By Susan Lee
 The results of the 2014
 gubernatorial election were announced on Tuesday night, and the results were a landslide victory for Bill Haslam. He won 89 percent of the vote, or 1,800,000 votes, over
 his opponent, Eric Lipton, who won 11
 percent, or 230,000
 votes. The results were a surprise to many observers, who had
 expected a closer race.
 Haslam's victory was a result of his strong
 record in office, his popularity, and his
 effective campaign.
 Lipton's loss was a
 result of his weak
 record in office, his
 unpopularity, and his
 ineffective campaign.
 The results of the
 election were a
 reflection of the voters' confidence in Haslam and his administration.

Energy fund
 will be up to $100 million
 The state's new energy fund will be up to $100
 million, according to a new bill introduced in the legislature.

The Knoxville
FOCUS
 www.knoxfocus.com
 FREE
 Take One
 Every 2 Weeks

'GROWING KNOXVILLE TOGETHER'
Eddie Mannis kicks off mayoral campaign

By Susan Lee
 Eddie Mannis, a former mayor of Knoxville, has announced that he is running for
 mayor in the 2015
 election. Mannis
 is a member of the Republican Party and has served as mayor
 of Knoxville for 12 years. He is currently serving
 as a member of the Tennessee
 General Assembly.
 Mannis's campaign
 is focused on
 growing Knoxville
 together and improving the quality of life for
 all residents.

