Haslam wins!
Nearly 60% of the metropolitan Knoxville area's voters chose Republican Gov. Bill Haslam over Democrat Gov. Ernie Babbitt in the Nov. 6 election.

Haslam's win
The results of the Nov. 6 election were a surprise to many in the Knoxville area. While Haslam had been the favorite to win, many expected Babbitt to win. However, Haslam won by a landslide, securing nearly 60% of the vote.

Haslam's victory
Haslam's victory was a significant win for the Republican Party in Tennessee. It marks the first time a Republican has won the governor's office in the state since 1995.

Haslam's campaign
Haslam's campaign was focused on economic development and job creation. He promised to bring new businesses to the state and create thousands of new jobs.

Haslam's record
Haslam has a record of success in the private sector. He has founded several successful companies and has been recognized as one of the most powerful people in Tennessee.

Haslam's future
Haslam's victory opens up the possibility of a second term. He will be running for re-election in 2014.
