Two Vietnam Memorials to be Dedicated at Fulton High School

By [Name]

Two Vietnam War memorials are set to be dedicated at Fulton High School in Knoxville on Tuesday, June 15, at 10:00 a.m. The memorials, one for the Vietnam War and another for the Vietnam Veterans, will be placed in the school's courtyard. The dedication ceremony will be held in the presence of school officials, community members, and veterans. The Vietnam War Memorial is a large, rectangular stone structure with the names of the fallen soldiers inscribed on it. The Vietnam Veterans Memorial is a smaller, more ornate structure with a central figure and the names of the veterans around it. The school principal, [Name], said that the memorials are a testament to the sacrifices made by the men and women who served in the Vietnam War. He said that the school is proud to have these memorials on its campus and that they will serve as a reminder of the importance of service to our country.
