Local residents are proud of the historic Sevier meeting room in the Sevier High School building, and they are now the owners of the historic building. The Sevier High School building, which was built in 1924, is now the home of the Sevier County Historical Society. The building is a historic landmark and is listed on the National Register of Historic Places.

As you probably are, I am a big fan of the Sevier County Historical Society. The society is a great organization that has been around for over 50 years. It has a great collection of historical artifacts and documents. It also has a great website that is full of information about the history of Sevier County.
