

At Inskip Recreation Center Wednesday, the Knoxville Parks and Recreation Department manned the table to distribute food to school-aged children through the efforts of Daniel Alexander, Chandler Fielding and Georgia Leonard. Knox County Schools, Parks and Recreation, CAC and other agencies are making sure anyone under 18 has food during the coronavirus emergency. There are now 38 locations in Knox County where parents may pick up breakfast and lunch for their children.

Questions arise over funds to renovate TVA East Tower

It took a while last week for the Knox County Commission to approve agreements to fund the renovations of the TVA East Tower and the Summer Place as several members had serious questions.

The commission's shortened agenda dealt with a variety of resolutions, includ meals will be available at one of the designated emergency feeding sites via drive-thru or walk-up for children to consume at home. There is no dine-in option. Children must be present to receive meals; however, families may pick up at any distribution site regardless of enrollment. Additionally, no proof of income is required. Extra meals cannot be provided if additional children are not present.

Meals will be distributed at the following locations:

- Across All Boundaries Church (No school packets): 2821 E. Magnolia Ave., Knoxville, TN 37914
- Austin-East High School: 2800 Martin Luther King Jr. Ave., Knoxville, TN 37914
- Bearden Middle School: 1000 Francis Road, Knoxville, TN 37909
- Bearden High School: 8352 Kingston Pike, Knoxville, TN 37919
- Beaumont Magnet Academy: 1211 Beaumont Ave., Knoxville, TN 37921
- Belle Morris Elementary School: 2308 Washington Pike, Knoxville, TN 37917
- Carter High School: 240 N. Carter
