At Inskip Recreation Center Wednesday, the Knoxville Parks and Recreation Department manned the table to distribute food to school-aged children through the efforts of Daniel Alexander, Chandler Fielding and Georgia Leonard. Knox County Schools, Parks and Recreation, CAC and other agencies are making sure anyone under 18 has food during the coronavirus emergency. There are now 38 locations in Knox County where parents may pick up breakfast and lunch for their children.

Questions arise over funds to renovate TVA East Tower

By Mike Steely Senior Writer steelym@knoxfocus.com

It took a while last week for the Knox County Commission to approve agreements to fund the renovations of the TVA East Tower and the Summer Place as several members had serious questions.

The commission's shortened agenda dealt with a variety of resolutions including a vote to close part of Solway Ferry Road so the local church, Solway Baptist, could install a monument to military veterans. Also approved was a consent calendar covering school board requests. several storm water projects, contracting with Cedar Bluff Towing, Chestnut Street Transport and Sutherland Avenue Wrecker Services for towing, and postponing the McBee Ferry Landing transfer from Legacy Parks.

Also postponed until their April meeting was the lease agreement with the Knoxville Jewish Alliance for a marker for Master Sergeant Roddie Edmonds to be laced at the corner of Market Street and Clinch Avenue

The commission passed the code change to permit special judges to receive $300 per half day when they sit in for absent judges.

All of the zoning change requests were postponed until the commission meets

The discussion about funding the TVA East Tower improvements and the acquisition of the Summer Place Complex there was prompted by several questions from Commissioner Charles Busler. He asked that the two matters be removed from the consent calendar and discussed Busler said the COVID-19 virus could have an effect on county tax collection
