At Indip Recreation Center Wednesday, the Knoxville Parks and Recreation Department manned the table to distribute food to school-aged children through the efforts of Daniel Alexander, Chandler Fielding and Georgia Leonard. Knox County Schools, Parks and Recreation, CAC and other agencies are making sure anyone under 18 has food during the coronavirus emergency. There are now 38 locations in Knox County where parents may pick up breakfast and lunch for their children.

Questions arise over funds to renovate TVA East Tower

It took a while last week for the Knoxville County Commission to approve agreements to fund the renovations of the TVA East Tower and the Summer Place as several members had serious questions.

The commissioners shortened agenda dealt with a variety of resolutions including a vote to close part of Solway Ferry Road to the local church, Sorely Baptist, could install a monument to military veterans. Also approved was a consent calendar covering school board requests, closed district holiday. Meal distribution will be held as usual.

Meal distribution will occur from 9 a.m. - noon. Breakfast and lunch will be distributed at the same time.

The meals will be available at one of 38 designated emergency feeding sites via drive-thru or walk-up for children to consume at home. There is no drive-in option. Children must be present to receive meals, however, families may pick up at any distribution site regardless of enrollment. Additionally, no proof of income is required. Extra meals cannot be provided if additional children are not present.
