

Congressman Tom Blumhardt visited the Knoxville City Stadium on Wednesday morning to present the first responders' House of Good Samaritan medals. The good results of the day delivering the medals around the congressional district. Photo: Courtesy of Andrew Elliott

By Mike Hensley
Senior Writer
mikehensley@knoxnews.com

Congressman Tom Blumhardt was in Knoxville Friday morning, visiting the site of the 2013 shooting, and delivering 22 House of Good Samaritan medals.

The Second District Congressman will collect for $1,000 for the medals and the city, which is also who made the first House of Good Samaritan medals. The medals are made of metal and are given to the first responders who were at the scene of the shooting.

The first group he stopped was a group of the Fire Station # 22 at 2000 North Knoxville Ave. He then proceeded to the City of Knoxville Police Station, a Knoxville Police, Knoxville City and Knoxville Fire Hall.

The first group he stopped was a group of the Fire Station # 22 at 2000 North Knoxville Ave.

Blumhardt is a member of the House of Good Samaritan and has been a member since 2011. He is a member of the House of Good Samaritan and has been a member since 2011. He is a member of the House of Good Samaritan and has been a member since 2011.

Verbiage of human resources ordinance to be changed

By Mike Hensley
Senior Writer
mikehensley@knoxnews.com

In the Council of the City of Knoxville, the City of Knoxville is considering a change to the ordinance that governs the City of Knoxville.

...the City of Knoxville is considering a change to the ordinance that governs the City of Knoxville. The City of Knoxville is considering a change to the ordinance that governs the City of Knoxville.

What sparked Dr. Tumblin's interest in history?

By Mike Hensley
Senior Writer
mikehensley@knoxnews.com

Dr. Tumblin's interest in history was sparked by his experience in the military and his first job as a historian. He was a member of the House of Good Samaritan and has been a member since 2011.

Dr. Tumblin is a member of the House of Good Samaritan and has been a member since 2011. He is a member of the House of Good Samaritan and has been a member since 2011.

KAT announces temporary service reductions

On Monday, April 21, 2014, KAT announced that it will be making temporary service reductions to its fleet of vehicles. The City of Knoxville is considering a change to the ordinance that governs the City of Knoxville.