

County seeking solutions to overwhelming testing response

By David Miller
 12/15/2020

As the number of COVID-19 tests performed in the county continues to rise, the health department is seeking solutions to manage the overwhelming response. The department is currently receiving more tests than it can process, and is looking for ways to increase capacity and streamline the testing process.

The health department is currently receiving more tests than it can process, and is looking for ways to increase capacity and streamline the testing process. The department is currently receiving more tests than it can process, and is looking for ways to increase capacity and streamline the testing process.

The health department is currently receiving more tests than it can process, and is looking for ways to increase capacity and streamline the testing process. The department is currently receiving more tests than it can process, and is looking for ways to increase capacity and streamline the testing process.

Study of recycle bin area approved by city council

By David Miller
 12/15/2020

The city council has approved a study of the recycle bin area. The study will look at the current setup and determine if there are any improvements that can be made. The study will also look at the cost of any improvements and the potential benefits to the community.

The study will also look at the cost of any improvements and the potential benefits to the community. The study will also look at the cost of any improvements and the potential benefits to the community.

The study will also look at the cost of any improvements and the potential benefits to the community. The study will also look at the cost of any improvements and the potential benefits to the community.

The study will also look at the cost of any improvements and the potential benefits to the community. The study will also look at the cost of any improvements and the potential benefits to the community.

The study will also look at the cost of any improvements and the potential benefits to the community. The study will also look at the cost of any improvements and the potential benefits to the community.

The study will also look at the cost of any improvements and the potential benefits to the community. The study will also look at the cost of any improvements and the potential benefits to the community.

The study will also look at the cost of any improvements and the potential benefits to the community. The study will also look at the cost of any improvements and the potential benefits to the community.

DM Miller Passes Away At 94

By David Miller
 12/15/2020

David Miller, a long-time resident of the county, has passed away at the age of 94. He was a member of the local community and was known for his friendly nature and helpfulness.

David Miller, a long-time resident of the county, has passed away at the age of 94. He was a member of the local community and was known for his friendly nature and helpfulness.