

CAK athletes, performing arts students receive tribute

Christian Academy of Knoxville had a socially distant parade honoring its senior athletics and performing arts students recently. The students lost the majority of the spring semester and spring sports season due to the COVID-19 pandemic. Photo submitted.

A virtual award ceremony and Pledge of Allegiance were held off the BCE May 8th agenda which focused on moving forward using safety measures during COVID-19 times, and discussing how BCE can become a 1:1 District. Before these two items were discussed, announcements given by Chairperson Susan Horn included May 30 as Teacher Appreciation Week, a budget meeting for the 2020-21 school year slated for May 30, and the uncertainty as June BCE meetings to be held virtually or in person. BCE members were also reminded to complete their required annual Tennessee School Boards Association training by June 30.

Once the agenda was agreed upon, Superintendent Bob Thomas gave his report. He thanked school nutrition workers, teachers, staff, administration, and volunteers for their hard work of supplying 678,000 meals in such difficult
