

CAK athletes, performing arts students receive tribute

Christian Academy of Knoxville had a socially distant parade honoring its senior athletes and performing arts students recently. The students lost the majority of the spring semester and spring sports season due to the COVID-19 pandemic. Photo submitted.

By Ken Lay

arts students a final tribute.

So it had a parade for the student-athletes and arts students. The event was held on

Estus, who also coaches the school's girls soccer team, said he knew that it wouldn't make up for a lost season for

But he felt that he and the school had to do something for these students and that was a socially distant parade where

BOE Session

By Amy Box Fellhoeelter

A virtual moment of silence and Pledge of Allegiance wasn't left off the BOE May 6th agenda which focused on moving forward using safety precautions during COVID-19 times, and discussing how KCS can become a 1:1 district. Before these two items were discussed, announcements given by Chairperson Susan Horn included May 3-9 as Teacher Appreciation Week, a budget meeting for the 2020-21 school year slated for May 20, and the uncertainty of June BOE meetings to be held virtually or in person. BOE members were also reminded to complete their required annual Tennessee School Boards Association training by June 30.

Once the agenda was approved, Superintendent Bob Thomas gave his report. He thanked school nutrition workers, teachers, staff, administration, and volunteers for their hard work of supplying 673,000 meals in such difficult times. "I've been inspired by the example of the KSC community and I'm so proud of the 'can-do' spirit of our employees who have