

Changes at PARC demanded by some citizens

By Mike Brady
Knox County Times
October 1, 1992

As the battle of control over the state's schools continues, some citizens are demanding changes at the PARC. Some are calling for a new board of control, while others are calling for a new board of education.

Some are calling for a new board of control, while others are calling for a new board of education. Some are calling for a new board of control, while others are calling for a new board of education. Some are calling for a new board of control, while others are calling for a new board of education.

Some are calling for a new board of control, while others are calling for a new board of education. Some are calling for a new board of control, while others are calling for a new board of education. Some are calling for a new board of control, while others are calling for a new board of education.

Some are calling for a new board of control, while others are calling for a new board of education. Some are calling for a new board of control, while others are calling for a new board of education. Some are calling for a new board of control, while others are calling for a new board of education.

Representative Ben Bledsoe and Rep. Clifton Givens are seen after the ceremony at the new headquarters of the Knox County GOP.

Knox County GOP celebrates re-opening of headquarters

By Mike Brady

The Knox County Republican Party celebrated the re-opening of its new headquarters today at the new building at 1000 N. Main St. in Knoxville.

The new building is a two-story, 10,000-sq-ft structure that will house the party's offices and a meeting room. It was built by the party's executive director, Ben Bledsoe.

The new building is a two-story, 10,000-sq-ft structure that will house the party's offices and a meeting room. It was built by the party's executive director, Ben Bledsoe.

The new building is a two-story, 10,000-sq-ft structure that will house the party's offices and a meeting room. It was built by the party's executive director, Ben Bledsoe.

The new building is a two-story, 10,000-sq-ft structure that will house the party's offices and a meeting room. It was built by the party's executive director, Ben Bledsoe.

The new building is a two-story, 10,000-sq-ft structure that will house the party's offices and a meeting room. It was built by the party's executive director, Ben Bledsoe.

The new building is a two-story, 10,000-sq-ft structure that will house the party's offices and a meeting room. It was built by the party's executive director, Ben Bledsoe.

The new building is a two-story, 10,000-sq-ft structure that will house the party's offices and a meeting room. It was built by the party's executive director, Ben Bledsoe.

The new building is a two-story, 10,000-sq-ft structure that will house the party's offices and a meeting room. It was built by the party's executive director, Ben Bledsoe.

The new building is a two-story, 10,000-sq-ft structure that will house the party's offices and a meeting room. It was built by the party's executive director, Ben Bledsoe.

The new building is a two-story, 10,000-sq-ft structure that will house the party's offices and a meeting room. It was built by the party's executive director, Ben Bledsoe.

Election office prepares for August

By Mike Brady
Knox County Times
October 1, 1992

The election office is preparing for the August election. The office is working on the registration of voters and the distribution of ballots.

The election office is preparing for the August election. The office is working on the registration of voters and the distribution of ballots. The office is working on the registration of voters and the distribution of ballots.

The election office is preparing for the August election. The office is working on the registration of voters and the distribution of ballots. The office is working on the registration of voters and the distribution of ballots.

The election office is preparing for the August election. The office is working on the registration of voters and the distribution of ballots. The office is working on the registration of voters and the distribution of ballots.

The election office is preparing for the August election. The office is working on the registration of voters and the distribution of ballots. The office is working on the registration of voters and the distribution of ballots.

Community task force discusses

Continued on page 2

Continued on page 2