Elters vs. Knox County hearing set for July 16

By Mike Gandy
Knox County
Editor/Reporter

The 10th Circuit Court will hear the case between Knox County and the Elters family on July 16. The case involves the county's decision to allow a private company to operate the county's solid waste management system.

The county's decision was challenged by the Elters family, who claim that the county's decision was arbitrary and capricious.
The county's decision was based on the fact that the county's solid waste management system was in need of a new contract.

For many, the pandemic has been a time of isolation and frustration. For some, it's been a time of loss. For others, it's been a time of hope. For the Elters family, it's been a time of frustration.

The family's frustration is based on the county's decision to allow a private
company to operate the
management system. The family claims that the county's decision was arbitrary and capricious.
