

KCS Task Force meets again to discuss students' return in fall

By Emily Hardy

Two Kanes County Schools Board members met Tuesday for their second meeting to discuss whether to recommend students return in fall.

It was the second meeting since the first one for the school board meeting on Tuesday, June 23, at the Kanes County Board of Education meeting room.

The first meeting was held on June 15, which was a meeting for the board of education for the Kanes County Board of Education. The board of education was held to discuss the return of students to the Kanes County Board of Education.

The board of education was held to discuss the return of students to the Kanes County Board of Education. The board of education was held to discuss the return of students to the Kanes County Board of Education.

The board of education was held to discuss the return of students to the Kanes County Board of Education. The board of education was held to discuss the return of students to the Kanes County Board of Education.

The board of education was held to discuss the return of students to the Kanes County Board of Education. The board of education was held to discuss the return of students to the Kanes County Board of Education.

Kanes County Schools Board member David H. Hays speaks during the Kanes County Schools Board meeting on Tuesday, June 23, at the Kanes County Board of Education meeting room. Hays is the only board member who supports the return of students to the Kanes County Board of Education.

Hays will present the plan to the board of education on Tuesday, June 23, at the Kanes County Board of Education meeting room. Hays is the only board member who supports the return of students to the Kanes County Board of Education.

Hays will present the plan to the board of education on Tuesday, June 23, at the Kanes County Board of Education meeting room. Hays is the only board member who supports the return of students to the Kanes County Board of Education.

Hays will present the plan to the board of education on Tuesday, June 23, at the Kanes County Board of Education meeting room. Hays is the only board member who supports the return of students to the Kanes County Board of Education.

Hays will present the plan to the board of education on Tuesday, June 23, at the Kanes County Board of Education meeting room. Hays is the only board member who supports the return of students to the Kanes County Board of Education.

Continue on page 2

Masks, cameras, appointments at City Council

By Emily Hardy
Kanes County Board of Education

Yesterday's City Council meeting featured an interesting discussion on how to handle the return of students to the Kanes County Board of Education. The discussion was held to discuss the return of students to the Kanes County Board of Education.

The discussion was held to discuss the return of students to the Kanes County Board of Education. The discussion was held to discuss the return of students to the Kanes County Board of Education.

The discussion was held to discuss the return of students to the Kanes County Board of Education. The discussion was held to discuss the return of students to the Kanes County Board of Education.

The discussion was held to discuss the return of students to the Kanes County Board of Education. The discussion was held to discuss the return of students to the Kanes County Board of Education.

The discussion was held to discuss the return of students to the Kanes County Board of Education. The discussion was held to discuss the return of students to the Kanes County Board of Education.

Continue on page 2

Filling in the GAP

By Emily Hardy
Kanes County Board of Education