

South High Senior Living opens

South High Senior Living officials and community members gathered for the opening of South High Senior Living. The South High Senior Living building is a new addition to the South High Senior Living campus.

By Mike Hensley
 Senior Staff Writer
 mhen@coloradoonline.com

The South High Senior Living building is a new addition to the South High Senior Living campus. The building is a new addition to the South High Senior Living campus.

Thursday with a ribbon-cutting ceremony. The South High Senior Living building is a new addition to the South High Senior Living campus. The building is a new addition to the South High Senior Living campus.

The South High Senior Living building is a new addition to the South High Senior Living campus. The building is a new addition to the South High Senior Living campus.

KCS unveils reopening plan for 2020-21

By KCS Staff

KCS County Schools unveiled its reopening plan for the 2020-21 school year at a community meeting held Tuesday night.

The plan includes a variety of safety measures, including masks, social distancing, and hand sanitization. The plan also includes a variety of safety measures, including masks, social distancing, and hand sanitization.

The plan also includes a variety of safety measures, including masks, social distancing, and hand sanitization. The plan also includes a variety of safety measures, including masks, social distancing, and hand sanitization.

Parents and students willing to participate in the plan will be able to return to school. The plan also includes a variety of safety measures, including masks, social distancing, and hand sanitization.

The plan also includes a variety of safety measures, including masks, social distancing, and hand sanitization. The plan also includes a variety of safety measures, including masks, social distancing, and hand sanitization.

The plan also includes a variety of safety measures, including masks, social distancing, and hand sanitization. The plan also includes a variety of safety measures, including masks, social distancing, and hand sanitization.

The plan also includes a variety of safety measures, including masks, social distancing, and hand sanitization. The plan also includes a variety of safety measures, including masks, social distancing, and hand sanitization.