

...for $25. This insurance will offset the cost of repairs or a replacement if the device is lost or stolen, or in the event of theft.

...the group, that some for other

...the group, that some for other

...the group, that some for other

...the group, that some for other

South High Senior Living opens

South High Senior Living opens in the spring at South High Senior Living. The South High Senior Living has been recently renovated and is now a Place for Living at the City.

By Mike Gandy
South High Senior Living
South High Senior Living

...the group, that some for other

...the group, that some for other

KCS unveils reopening plan for 2020-21

Continued

...the group, that some for other

...the group, that some for other

...the group, that some for other

...the group, that some for other

...the group, that some for other

...the group, that some for other

...the group, that some for other

Continued on page 2