

Local GOP candidates celebrate victories at Crowne Plaza. From left to right: Republican candidates for mayor, Ron K. Williams, and for state representative, David L. Williams.

Local GOP candidates celebrate victories at Crowne Plaza

Local GOP candidates celebrated their victories at the Crowne Plaza hotel in Koon County. The group, led by Mayor Ron K. Williams, included candidates for state representative, David L. Williams, and for state senator, John L. Williams. The group was joined by family members and friends of the candidates. The celebration was held in the hotel's ballroom and featured a reception and a dinner. The candidates were all re-elected to their respective offices.

Mayor Ron K. Williams was re-elected to his second term. He received 65 percent of the vote. David L. Williams was re-elected to his second term as state representative. He received 60 percent of the vote. John L. Williams was re-elected to his second term as state senator. He received 62 percent of the vote.

The candidates were all members of the local GOP. They were all re-elected to their respective offices. The celebration was a great success and showed the support of the community for the local GOP candidates.

The group was joined by family members and friends of the candidates. The celebration was held in the hotel's ballroom and featured a reception and a dinner. The candidates were all re-elected to their respective offices.

The candidates were all members of the local GOP. They were all re-elected to their respective offices. The celebration was a great success and showed the support of the community for the local GOP candidates.

The group was joined by family members and friends of the candidates. The celebration was held in the hotel's ballroom and featured a reception and a dinner. The candidates were all re-elected to their respective offices.

Local GOP candidates celebrate victories at Crowne Plaza. From left to right: Republican candidates for mayor, Ron K. Williams, and for state representative, David L. Williams.

The group was joined by family members and friends of the candidates. The celebration was held in the hotel's ballroom and featured a reception and a dinner. The candidates were all re-elected to their respective offices.

The candidates were all members of the local GOP. They were all re-elected to their respective offices. The celebration was a great success and showed the support of the community for the local GOP candidates.

The group was joined by family members and friends of the candidates. The celebration was held in the hotel's ballroom and featured a reception and a dinner. The candidates were all re-elected to their respective offices.

The candidates were all members of the local GOP. They were all re-elected to their respective offices. The celebration was a great success and showed the support of the community for the local GOP candidates.

The group was joined by family members and friends of the candidates. The celebration was held in the hotel's ballroom and featured a reception and a dinner. The candidates were all re-elected to their respective offices.

The candidates were all members of the local GOP. They were all re-elected to their respective offices. The celebration was a great success and showed the support of the community for the local GOP candidates.

Emerald Youth Foundation to participate in food program

The Emerald Youth Foundation will participate in a food program. The program is designed to help children in need. The foundation will provide food and other resources to the children. The program is a great way to help the community and support the children.

Some surprises in Koon County voting choices