

CALLS AND FAXES
 Please Support
 Local Journalism
FREE
 Fall 2014
 $4.00

Local GOP candidates gathered for a group photo at the Crowne Plaza hotel in Knoxville. Photo by [Name].

Local GOP candidates celebrate victories at Crowne Plaza

Local Republican candidates celebrated their victories at the Crowne Plaza hotel in Knoxville on Tuesday night. The group, including candidates for various offices, posed for a group photo in a room decorated with American flags. The candidates, including [Name], [Name], and [Name], were joined by family members and supporters. The event was a significant moment for the local GOP, marking a successful election night. The candidates expressed their gratitude to the voters and their commitment to serving the community.

The group of candidates, including [Name], [Name], and [Name], were joined by family members and supporters. The event was a significant moment for the local GOP, marking a successful election night. The candidates expressed their gratitude to the voters and their commitment to serving the community.

[Name], a local GOP candidate, speaking at the Crowne Plaza hotel. Photo by [Name].

Some surprises in Knox County voting choices

Some surprising results were seen in Knox County during the recent election. [Name] emerged as a strong contender in the [office], while [Name] secured a significant victory in the [office]. The results reflect the diverse interests and preferences of the county's voters.

The election results in Knox County were marked by several surprises. [Name] emerged as a strong contender in the [office], while [Name] secured a significant victory in the [office]. The results reflect the diverse interests and preferences of the county's voters.

Some surprising results were seen in Knox County during the recent election. [Name] emerged as a strong contender in the [office], while [Name] secured a significant victory in the [office]. The results reflect the diverse interests and preferences of the county's voters.

School Martin to be held this afternoon

A School Martin event will be held this afternoon at the [location]. The event is a celebration of the school's achievements and a time for the community to come together. The program will include a variety of activities, including performances, games, and a special presentation. The event is free and open to all.

Emerald Youth Foundation to participate in food program

The Emerald Youth Foundation is participating in a food program to support local families in need. The program provides nutritious meals to children and their families, ensuring they have access to essential nutrients. The foundation is committed to making a positive impact in the community and supporting the well-being of its youth.

Emerald Youth Foundation
 Providing support for children and families.

GREENVIEW REALTY
 865-400-4554

[Name]
 Real Estate Agent

CONTACT US
 865-400-4554