

As the Mustangs develop practice drills, they also work on strategies, such as the combined outside off-center run. The high school football season is scheduled to start this week despite the coronavirus pandemic. Please see high school sports on page 10, including girls' soccer and girls' cross-country in Sports and Recreation, Section 4, of this week's issue.

Pressure? New Central head coach says he's excited

By Bruce Williams

The Mustangs' response to their new head coach's feelings could change as it isn't even week three yet.

After all, Central's football team has only been in head coach Steve D'Amico's championship suit for a few weeks. It's only been a few weeks since he took over as a high school head coach.

Central was a Division I football team for many years, but it's now a Division II team.

He has no idea how the Mustangs will respond to his new role.

"I feel excited that we have a new head coach," he said. "I feel excited that we have a new head coach." He said. "I feel excited that we have a new head coach."
