

Final Action set for Sept. at City Council

By David
Henderson

HOUSTON'S CITY COUNCIL will vote on Sept. 10 on a final set of actions to be taken by the city to address the needs of the city's LGBTQ+ community. The council will also vote on a resolution to support the city's LGBTQ+ community and to encourage the city to take steps to ensure that the city is a safe and welcoming place for all residents.

The council will also vote on a resolution to support the city's LGBTQ+ community and to encourage the city to take steps to ensure that the city is a safe and welcoming place for all residents. The council will also vote on a resolution to support the city's LGBTQ+ community and to encourage the city to take steps to ensure that the city is a safe and welcoming place for all residents.

Back to School

HOUSTON'S CITY COUNCIL will vote on Sept. 10 on a final set of actions to be taken by the city to address the needs of the city's LGBTQ+ community.

Holston Middle hosts sixth-grade orientation

Health Board voted to suspend change

By David
Henderson

HOUSTON'S HEALTH BOARD will vote on Sept. 10 on a resolution to suspend a change to the city's health care system. The board will also vote on a resolution to support the city's health care system and to encourage the city to take steps to ensure that the city is a safe and welcoming place for all residents.

The board will also vote on a resolution to support the city's health care system and to encourage the city to take steps to ensure that the city is a safe and welcoming place for all residents. The board will also vote on a resolution to support the city's health care system and to encourage the city to take steps to ensure that the city is a safe and welcoming place for all residents.

The board will also vote on a resolution to support the city's health care system and to encourage the city to take steps to ensure that the city is a safe and welcoming place for all residents. The board will also vote on a resolution to support the city's health care system and to encourage the city to take steps to ensure that the city is a safe and welcoming place for all residents.