

Final Action on HR Dept. at City Council

By Mike Toney
mike.toney@herald-examiner.com

The new position of director of human resources will be created by the City of Holston, the city council will decide on Tuesday when the city council meets. The new position is needed by the city to be able to hire and fire employees. The director will be responsible for all of the city's human resources. The director will be responsible for all of the city's human resources. The director will be responsible for all of the city's human resources.

The new position will be created by the City of Holston, the city council will decide on Tuesday when the city council meets. The new position is needed by the city to be able to hire and fire employees. The director will be responsible for all of the city's human resources. The director will be responsible for all of the city's human resources. The director will be responsible for all of the city's human resources.

The new position will be created by the City of Holston, the city council will decide on Tuesday when the city council meets. The new position is needed by the city to be able to hire and fire employees. The director will be responsible for all of the city's human resources. The director will be responsible for all of the city's human resources. The director will be responsible for all of the city's human resources.

Back to School

Holston Middle School Language Arts teacher Britney Rogers welcomes students to sixth-grade orientation, which occurred Tuesday at HHS.

Holston Middle hosts sixth-grade orientation

By Mike Toney

Health Board rebuffs 'unelected' charge

By Mike Toney
mike.toney@herald-examiner.com

The Holston City Board of Health met in its regular session on Monday and rebuffed a charge that the city's health board is an unelected body.

The board met at the end of the session and was held by the city. The board met at the end of the session and was held by the city. The board met at the end of the session and was held by the city. The board met at the end of the session and was held by the city. The board met at the end of the session and was held by the city.

The board met at the end of the session and was held by the city. The board met at the end of the session and was held by the city. The board met at the end of the session and was held by the city. The board met at the end of the session and was held by the city. The board met at the end of the session and was held by the city.

The board met at the end of the session and was held by the city. The board met at the end of the session and was held by the city. The board met at the end of the session and was held by the city. The board met at the end of the session and was held by the city. The board met at the end of the session and was held by the city.