

Exeter City Mayor Judge Emerson and other dignitaries cut the ribbon to signify the official opening of the Baker Creek Bike Park at Baker Creek Preserve, 1700 Lancaster Drive, in South Exeter Thursday.

City celebrates opening of Baker Creek Bike Park

By Ron Lay

The City of Exeter celebrated a South Exeter bike park Thursday morning. The ribbon-cutting

The newly-opened Baker Creek Bike Park is the first new feature to be completed as part of the major 100-acre Gateway Park project.

Exeter City Mayor Judge

purchased when Mayor Hays was city mayor 17 years ago and the groundbreaking had just taken in 2004.

Mayor Hays said he was mayor when the city pur-and the team that made this happen," Emerson said. "This is such a great day for our city. It is for the people of South Exeter and it is for all Exetians, but it's also for

By Ron Lay
ron.lay@exeter.com
ron.lay@exeter.com

The newly elected and re-elected local officials will gather at the Exeter Town Hall Tuesday at 10 a.m. for the opening ceremony featuring Mayor Judge Emerson. The winners of the August 19th County general election will be taking their oaths. The Board members include the following: re-elected or newly elected officials: Councilor/County Judge Hays, Mayor, Judge Emerson, David Hays, Public Defender for 1st Justice and Attorney of Property John R. Whitcomb.

Commissioners to name the judge and County Council, Councilor/County Judge Hays, Mayor, Judge Emerson, Mayor Hays, Mayor Hays and Councilor/County Judge Hays. School board members to be sworn in include: Mayor Hays, David Hays, Susan Hays, Mike Hays and school representative for property.

Certification of the judge was presented Tuesday morning after more than 15,000 people voted in the August 19th local general election and state and federal primary.

The new Exeter County Commission will then meet in person on Tuesday at 10 a.m. to select their chair and vice chair. They will also select members for the Board of Supervisors, County Subcommittees, In-